RECORDER: _____
Jill Agena

DATE: March 9, 2018

TITLE: License Field and Level Additions and Revisions

The Hawaii Teacher Standards Board adds the following new license levels to existing fields:

Existing License Field	New Level(s)
Hawaiian Language Immersion	6-8
Kaia 'ōlelo-Kaiapuni Hawai'i	6-8
Literacy Specialist	P-12
Reading Specialist	P-12
SPED Blind/Visually Impaired	P-12

The following fields may be added to existing Hawaii Provisional, Standard and Advanced Licenses:

License Field	Level(s)
Middle Level Generalist	6-8
Ethnomathematics	K-6, 6-12, K-12

Based on a request from Hawaii Educator Preparation Programs, the Executive Director will convene a workgroup in 2018-2019 to review all of the Special Education fields, levels, and requirements for adding special education fields to other Hawaii licenses. Workgroup participants will include representatives from the following stakeholder groups:

- Hawaii Department of Education
- Public Charter School Commission
- Charter School Network
- Hawaii State Teachers Association
- Hawaii Educator Preparation Programs offering special education programs

Referred to: Teacher Standards Committee

TITLE: Options for Meeting Standards for License Renewal

The Hawaii Teacher Standards Board adopts the following verification options for renewal of Hawaii Standard and Advanced Licenses:

- Effective or better rating on the licensee's most recent Hawaii Department of Education teacher evaluation within five years prior to the date of license renewal application;
- Effective or better rating, or equivalent, on the licensee's most recent Hawaii Charter School teacher evaluation within five years prior to the date of license renewal application. The evaluation must be submitted to HTSB by the school's administrator for verification that the evaluation meets the Hawaii Teacher Performance Standards;
- Effective or better rating, or equivalent, on the licensee's most recent Hawaii Association of Independent Schools or out of state school teacher evaluation within five years prior to the date of license renewal application. The evaluation must be submitted to HTSB by the school's administrator for verification that the evaluation meets the Hawaii Teacher Performance Standards;
- National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS) certification active within five years prior to the date of license renewal application;
- One hundred (100) verified professional development hours completed within five years prior to the date of license renewal application.
- Six semester hours of coursework that supports the practice of teaching, earned from an accredited institution of higher education within five years prior to the date of license renewal application.

Referred to: Teacher Standards Committee

TITLE: Revisions to Hawaii Administrative Rules

The Hawaii Teacher Standards Board approved the following revisions to Hawaii Administrative Rules based on recommendations from HTSB's Deputy Attorney General:

§8-54-9.6 Limited Duty Special Permit

(a) The board may grant a limited duty special permit to an ~~instructor~~ individual

§8-54-19

Delete the following because it is a suggestion, not a rule:

~~(6) Each program is encouraged to provide supplemental mentoring support to its program completers throughout their first year of teaching in a format developed by the program.~~

§8-54-20

(a) (1) The letter of intent and preconditions must be submitted for consideration no less than one year prior to proposed program implementation;

(c) The board will review the ~~panel's~~ review team's recommendation and issue a decision
